

Huntley & Palmers Pop-Up Shop Visit

Our Allotments Association have had a long lasting relationship with the Huntley & Palmers Allotments Association based at the Culver Lane Allotments site and tenants have been able to purchase many of their on-site shop products using their 'Trading Shed' low-cost membership together with the annual H & P Price Lists, published for your convenience in our Special Bulletins.

Now, in a first for our Association and in a joint venture, we are going to stage a Pop-Up shop on the Reading Road site. Huntley & Palmers 'Trading Shed' has offered to bring many of their shop products to our site for you to purchase and they will also be able to take orders for anything that they don't have with them on the day.

The date for your calendar is Friday 15th April 2022 from 10am till 12.30pm. The Pop-Up shop will be located outside the Launchpad polytunnel at the bottom of Jersey Knoll (Rows J-K). We expect this to be the first of a number of events we are looking to stage this year so please come along and support this innovative event.

Many thanks
